A Brief History of the Diocese

On July 29, 1853, Pope Pius IX created a diocese in the oldest settlement in the Louisiana Purchase, Le Post de Natchitoches. It had only five priests and five churches to serve 20,000 Catholics who were spread throughout the entire northern half of Louisiana.

For 22 years, Bishop Auguste Marie Martin zealously recruited priests and religious from Europe. He established a seminary to train native clergy, started “priests schools,” and established numerous missions.

Bishop Francis Xavier Leray, after only two years as the second Bishop of Natchitoches, was named coadjutor to the Archbishop of New Orleans and attempted vigorously to fill both positions. A Frenchman by birth, he realized that most of his flock were native English-speaking people, so he ordered his priests and religious to pray, teach, and communicate in English.

The most notable contribution of the third bishop, Antoine Durier, was in the field of Catholic education. His first pastoral letter ordered “the establishment of a Catholic school near every church” and organized a Catholic School Board in 1889.

Bishop Cornelius Van de Ven had the distinction of being both the fourth (and last) Bishop of Natchitoches and the first Bishop of Alexandria. In 1910, the See City was transferred to Alexandria and St. Francis Xavier Church was designated its Cathedral. Van de Ven established north Louisiana’s first Catholic hospital--Schumpert Medical Center in Shreveport.

The fifth Bishop and first American-born was Daniel Desmond, whose 12 years in office were marked by rapid growth in the diocese. He established 10 new schools, 22 parishes and 25 new churches.

During the next 27 years, Bishop Charles Pascal Greco led his generous and growing flock in a phenomenal building program that included the establishment of 33 new parishes and the construction of more than 125 churches and chapels, 100 convents and rectories, 50 schools, and 7 health care facilities. He also built St. Mary’s Residential Training School and Maryhill.

Bishop Lawrence P. Graves, 7th Bishop, was influential in establishing or improving continuing education for priests; offices for religious education and youth ministry; Maryhill; the ministries of development and permanent diaconate; communication apostolate in newspaper, radio and tv; and the Bishop's Stewardship Appeal.

Bishop William B. Friend became the eighth bishop, but on July 29, 1986, he became the head of the new Diocese of Shreveport.

John C. Favalora was consecrated the ninth Bishop of the diocese. Six years later, Favalora became Archbishop of the Archdiocese of Miami.

Tenth bishop, Sam G. Jacobs, became a national icon for the Charismatic Movement in the 90s. He combined his love for the youth with the movement and created Steubenville South Youth Conference, and at the time was one of the largest Catholic youth conferences in the U.S. In 2003, he became the Bishop of the Diocese of Houma-Thibodeaux.

The eleventh bishop, Ronald P. Herzog, was ordained on Jan. 5, 2005. During his 11 years, he established two new parishes and revitalized the Permanent Diaconate program.

The thirteenth Bishop of Alexandria, Robert W. Marshall, Jr., was appointed on April 21, 2020. He was consecrated and installed on August 20, 2020.
Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

The prayer, “Live Jesus in our hearts,” is attributed to Saint John Baptist de La Salle, the patron saint of educators of youth. I have chosen this simple prayer as my episcopal motto – a reminder that Jesus Christ must be the center of our lives and that everything we do should flow from His love. In my brief time here in Louisiana, I have learned that Christ’s love beats in the hearts of many of the faithful people of the Church of Alexandria. I am honored to be called to serve here.

For generations, the work of the Church in Central Louisiana has been carried out in church parishes, schools, and ministry sites. As I write this, we are in the midst of a pandemic. We have adjusted to restrictions on the numbers who are able to participate in Mass, and on social distancing that has altered both our school schedules and many of our traditional ministries. We have participated in virtual gatherings and have been awakened to the many spiritual resources that can be found online. Throughout all of this time of distance, we have become aware that perhaps the most important location of the Church is in the home – your home and mine. It is in this domestic church where our faith must be renewed and sustained.

The Lord Jesus is not just someone we are asked to visit weekly or from time to time – He must be as close as the air that we breathe and the light that guides our path. Yes, we must welcome Jesus into our homes and into our hearts. Our seventy-one church parishes and missions, our eight schools and our innumerable ministries, therefore, are where the faith that dwells in our hearts is to be nourished, nurtured and expressed. They are where we remember that God still calls us together in love and service as members of the Mystical Body of Christ. May our common experience of distance and isolation draw us closer to the Lord and to one another.

May our loving God continue to bless you and your families.

Interested in becoming a Deacon?

As ministers of Word, deacons proclaim the Gospel, preach, and teach in the name of the Church.
As ministers of Sacraments, deacons baptize, lead the faithful in prayer, witness marriages, and conduct wake and funeral services.
As ministers of Charity, deacons are leaders in identifying the needs of others, then marshaling the Church’s resources to meet those needs.

Deacons are also dedicated to eliminating the injustices or inequities within their communities. But no matter what specific functions a deacon performs, they flow from his sacramental identity.
In other words, it is not only WHAT a deacon does, but WHO a deacon is, that is important.

An ACTS retreat emphasizes our call to service to the parish community and to our world community and results in a new or renewed dedication to the life of the parish community and a new recognition of the needs of those around us and of our obligation, as followers of Christ, to help meet those needs.

In the Diocese of Alexandria, ACTS retreats are offered by these parishes -- Our Lady of Prompt Succor in Alexandria, Sacred Heart in Pineville, St. Joseph in Marksville, St. Mary’s Assumption in Cottonport, St. Alphonsus in Hessmer, Our Lady of Guadalupe in Forest Hill, and St. Patrick in Ferriday.

If you would like to bring this apostolate to your parish, please contact: actschapteralexandria@gmail.com

The Call to Holiness...the Call to a Vocation

Each of us has a call - a vocation - to be holy as a married or single lay person, or as a priest, deacon, or a religious brother or sister. God offers to everyone the special graces required to fulfill their calling. Through prayer, vocation retreats, workshops and preaching in the church parishes, the Office of Church Vocations strives to strengthen parishioners’ relationships with God to ensure that they are filled with the grace necessary to fulfill their calling.

For more information, contact Father Luke LaFleur, Director of Vocations
