Please leave Maryhill better than you found it!

Guest rooms include appropriate bed linens and pillows; kitchens and dining areas include coffee makers and coffee, dishwashers and supplies, ice makers, standard cafeteria and commercial kitchen equipment, non-disposable plates, utensils.

NOT INCLUDED: bath linens, personal toiletries, consumables such as toilet tissue, paper products including paper towels, disposable plates, cups, napkins, dish soap, cleaning supplies.

YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR CLEANUP: Guest rooms have departure instructions which include wiping down the bathroom fixtures and vacuuming (vacuums provided). If additional cleaning is required after your departure, janitorial services will be billed to you. We can recommend janitorial services if you are unable to perform cleanup.

STRICTLY PROHIBITED:

1. The use of nails, staples, tacks or any other form of device which can be used for the affixing or hanging of any materials in or on any facility on the Maryhill campus is prohibited without the expressed, written consent of Maryhill management. Furthermore, the only allowed use of tape is blue painter's tape. However, the placement of this tape must be approved by Maryhill management prior to the use of the facility. Lastly, the covering of any window on the campus with any material whatsoever is prohibited without the expressed, written consent of Maryhill management. Violations of this policy may result in additional charges to the responsible user for repair costs.

2. The use of Amplified audio/music; audio speakers are strictly prohibited OUTDOORS. The use of sound equipment is allowed, however, please keep them indoors in consideration for others using the Maryhill Facilities at the same time as you are.

For further information on any of this, please contact Deacon Luke White at 318-542-1707 or dcnlwhite@diocesealex.org.
